Heifer University for Educators

July 21-25, 2010

This special program is being developed for teachers, librarians, school administrators and others who are interested in knowing more about Heifer's educational outreach. Participants will spend time in the Heifer Village educational facilities at Heifer's Headquarters in Little Rock, AR and at the Heifer Ranch Learning Center in Perryville, AR. Special attention will be given to Heifer's school programs as well as new educational initiatives. Some pre- and post-conference commitments will be expected of all participants since the program is designed to train participants for leadership roles in the school programs in your area.

Program Focus:

- Exploring Heifer's educational mission and goals
- Opportunities for professional growth and development
- Exploration of global topics (world food systems, globalization, conflict resolution, relief vs. development, etc.)
- Sharing of best practices

Scholarships are available to cover all on-site expenses.

CEU CREDITS will be offered to all Program Participants.
